

WHAT'S NEW

BEDSIDE MANNER

Kansas-based Dessin Fournir and L.A.-based interior designer Kerry Joyce crafted this Slater bedside table with a brass base and walnut body, available in custom sizes and finishes. $8,670 (T), NYC, 212-738-0844, dessinfournir.com.

TAKE ME HIGHER

Adapted from a project Mark Zeff originally designed for New York City's historic High Line, the H-Line bath faucet combines Brooklyn-based Watermark Design's custom capabilities with Zeff's historic-meets-modern aesthetic. Starting at $945, through Klaff's, Norwalk, 203-866-1603, Danbury, 203-792-3903, klaffs.com, watermark-design.com.

GOLD STANDARD

The Pinwheel chest from Dorothy Draper's collection for Kindel features floral cast brass pulls and split-bamboo molding around each cherry drawer, crafted in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Price upon request (T), NYDC, 646-293-6649, kindelfurniture.com.

POP CULTURE

Urban Electric Creative Director Michael Amato's newest fixture, Pop, features a swappable-back panel that can be customized in an array of interior fabrics, wallpapers and finishes. Shown in burn brass with Curry inset, price upon request, urbanelectric.com.

CAROLINA DREAM

Extra-deep seating is ideal for lounging on the Outerbanks sofa crafted by Cleveland-based company Arhaus. Choose from custom colors or buy ready-stocked in this Lindy natural. $3,200, Danbury, 203-792-3702, arhaus.com.

—Ann Loynd