product Val
standout In this gem of a collection—including washbasins, storage bins, and a bathtub, all boasting exceptionally thin forms—innovative design meets innovative material: that is, superstrong ceramic comprising the same minerals found in sapphires. us.laufen.com. circle 782

product Closer standout The designer's illuminating showerhead references a task lamp's classic form. Choose one or two adjustable arms; a cylindrical counterweight ensures stability no matter the position or height. zucchettidesign.it. circle 783

product Sky Shaped Dish standout Traditional porcelain gets a clever revamp with this nimbus-inspired dish, offered in white or a patchwork of classic blue patterns. royalcopenhagen.us. circle 784

product H-Line
standout Originally designed for a project overlooking New York City's iconic High Line, these rectilinear lavatory faucets boast gentle bows and square escutcheons with rounded sides and engraved solid-brass construction. watermark-designs.com. circle 785
