CALEB ANDERSON

A protege of interior designer Jamie Drake and architect David Mann, Anderson has forged his own firm and style. "I love to include a moment of the avant-garde," he says. calebandersondesign.com

SIGNATURE MOVE

"I'm a big fan of mixing metals. Rose gold, brass and gold can be really sophisticated when paired with cooler metals such as silver and chrome. The mix can add a lot of visual interest and depth to a space."

DESIGN INSPIRATION

"I greatly admire Jean-Louis Deniot. His work is so richly detailed and flawlessly executed."

WHERE HE SHOPS

"Atelier Courbet (175 Mott St., ateliercourbet.com) is an amazing shop and gallery space that's curated with the most fascinating limited-edition and one-of-a-kind pieces."

YOUNG HUH

A standout designer at the 2015 Kips Bay Showhouse for her mastery of patterns, Huh is the one to turn to for pretty and polished. "I create clean, classic interiors with personalized styling," she says. younghuh.com

SIGNATURE MOVE

"I think people will begin to see shades of pink as a neutral."

DESIGN INSPIRATION

"I admire the work of Renzo Mongiardino. I'm inspired by how every facet of his interiors was thoughtful, crafted by dozens of artisans and original."

WHERE SHE SHOPS

"I adore Creel and Gow (131 E. 70th St., creelandgow.com). I would buy everything in that store. I also love Bunny Williams Home (232 E. 59th St., 3rd Floor, bunnywilliamshome.com) for furniture and unique accessories and pieces like ready-made pillows in antique textiles."

TILTON FENWICK

Anne Maxwell Foster and Suysel dePedro Cunningham founded Tilton Fenwick in 2010 after working for greats like Markham Roberts and Brockschmidt & Coleman. tiltonfenwick.com

SIGNATURE MOVE

"Nothing is better than reupholstering a vintage find in a fresh new fabric or finding a piece that belonged to your grandmother or giving something a fresh coat of paint."

DESIGN INSPIRATION

"Great lady decorators of the past like Madeleine Castaing and Dorothy Draper. These women still inspire us today with their whimsical and anti-minimalist designs."

WHERE THEY SHOP

"We love the curated eye of James Sansum (33 E. 68th St., jamesansum.com). His shop is always one of our first stops."

MARK ZEFF

Zeff has designed homes for celebrities like Hilary Swank as well as massive commercial projects for brands like Hilton Hotels. "I meld modern elements with pieces from the past," he says. markzeff.com

SIGNATURE MOVE

"Lately we're using a lot of monochromatic colors for interiors—a lot of black painted wood and charcoals."

DESIGN INSPIRATION

"I'm interested in old movies from the '40s and the World War II era, colors like a muted camouflage's creams and greens."

WHERE HE SHOPS

"I like flea markets, especially a few in Brooklyn, but Maison Gerard (53 E. 10th St., maisongerard.com) is the best old-school antique store."
