

LUXURY

LUXURY MAGAZINE

WINTER 2016

WARM UPS

Let it snow, let it snow, let it snow ... When the weather's frightful, you can come in from the cold to this host of warm and often fuzzy objects, cover-ups, and seating that will elegantly and efficiently keep the shivers at bay.

Above: Beanbag chairs offer tailored comfort by conforming to the contours of your body. But this ultimate beanbag, made of lambskin, is also covered in a fleecy cloud of Tibetan lamb's wool. Restoration Hardware, $1,399, rh.com.

100 percent Supima cotton sheets and duvets (queen and king) with French seams can be dyed to the color of your choice, or you can pick from a set of artist-inspired collections. Swiss-made zippers are used for duvet covers. Flaneur, $360-$475, hiflanceur.com.

Architect Marco Constanzi's Velum sconces for the Fendi Casa contemporary collection take inspiration from African masks. Consisting of upholstered suede backs with brushed bronze detailing, they feature fox fur mosaic (mink also available) pierced for light to shine through. Fendi Casa, $12,870 as pictured, luxurylivinggroup.com.

Among its many possible uses, this hand-stitched leather bucket is perfect for holding logs by the fireplace. It comes in natural and brown leathers. Blackbarn Shop, $500, blackbarnshop.com.

Belgian designer Raf Simons' ombré-effect Tronic throws for Kvadrat are made of 60 percent cashmere and 40 percent wool and come in six colorways. Avenue Road, $650, avenue-road.com.

The Sicily Curved Sheepskin Chaise drapes warm sheepskin over a polished stainless steel frame upholstered in Snow shearling and Cream leather with waffle tufting. Mecox Gardens, $3,595, mecox.com. ▷

